The Golden Dance License Agreement

This is a "Duplication Master" license.

What does this mean?

You may make as many copies of the score and parts as you need for your particular performance situation. All we ask is that you don't give copies to others with whom you're not performing.

NOTE: In the case of businesses or organizations, use of this music is limited to one physical location and one (performing or rehearsing) group at a time. As an example, a school district or religious organization may not purchase one copy and then distribute it to all their schools or churches. Each school or church needs to buy a copy.

Why do you ask for my email address?

If you provide your email address, then if additions (ie. transpositions of instrumental parts, etc.) or corrections are made to the score, you will be contacted so you can update your copies! You will be given a URL (web address) at which you can download - for no extra charge, of course - a PDF of the updated score.

We ask that if you find any errors in the score or parts that you let us know at Michele@TheGoldenDance.com! That way, we can ensure that our music is as error-free as possible. Hey, we're human, so errors do happen from time to time. Help us eliminate them!

TheGoldenDance.com will never sell or distribute your email address to anyone! (We hate spam as much as you do!)

What's this I keep hearing about "Performance Rights" and "Royalties"?

According to US Copyright law, if you perform a piece of music, Performance Royalties are required unless the work is performed during a worship service or in a school classroom for educational purposes (see the US Copyright Office website at <http://lcweb.loc.gov/copyright/> or the ASCAP Licensing FAQ at <http://www.ascap.com/licensing/licensingfaq.html> for details).

TheGoldenDance.com is a member of ASCAP, the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. All Performance Royalties are administered through them. Please contact your local ASCAP Representative at info@ascap.com for more information about performance rights and royalties.

Please note: ASCAP does not deal in mechanical or synch licensing fees. If you want to record the music, either audio or video, for any purpose, please contact us at Michele@TheGoldenDance.com before you record!

NOTE: By purchasing sheet music from TheGoldenDance.com you are signifying your agreement with these license terms.

PROGRAM NOTES

The end of Europe's War of Austrian Succession came with the signing of the Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle. To celebrate this occasion, England's King George II commissioned George Frideric Handel to write a suite of grandiose music to accompany an immense pyrotechnic display to be held on April 27, 1749.

Featuring an orchestra of "martial instruments" (King George specifically ordered, "No fiddles!"), the dress rehearsal held a week before the festivities - 100 musicians playing to a crowd of over twelve thousand people - went very well. Unfortunately, the main event did not....

A newspaper of the time reported:

"The rockets succeeded mighty well, but the wheels, and all that to compose the principal part, were pitiful and ill-conducted ... and then, what contributed to the awkwardness of the whole, was the right pavilion catching fire, and being burnt down in the middle of the show."

The Music for the Royal Fireworks, however, was so popular that Handel added strings and continuo to the orchestra and presented it again at a concert in May of that same year.

La Paix, a gentle "Largo alla Siciliana", is a lovely dance movement which features an ornamented figure echoed back and forth between the bells and the piano.

Largo alla Siciliana

$\text{♩} = 120$

The musical score is arranged in three systems. The first system includes staves for Handbells, Piano or Harpsichord (treble and bass clefs), and Cello. The second system continues the piano/harp and cello parts. The third system continues the piano/harp and cello parts. The score is in G major (one sharp) and 12/8 time. It features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-4. A large watermark 'THIS IS A SAMPLE' is overlaid diagonally across the score.

Musical score for measures 5 and 6. The score is written for three staves: a single treble clef staff at the top, and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) below. The key signature is one sharp (F#). Measure 5 features a continuous eighth-note pattern in the top staff, with fingerings 5 and 6 indicated. The grand staff accompaniment includes a similar eighth-note pattern in the bass line and a more melodic line in the treble. Measure 6 continues the eighth-note pattern in the top staff and features a more complex accompaniment in the grand staff.

Musical score for measures 7 and 8. The score is written for three staves: a single treble clef staff at the top, and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) below. The key signature is one sharp (F#). Measure 7 features a melodic line in the top staff with a trill (tr) and fingerings 7 and 8. The grand staff accompaniment includes a similar melodic line in the bass line and a more complex line in the treble. Measure 8 continues the melodic line in the top staff with trills and fingerings 7 and 8. The grand staff accompaniment includes a similar melodic line in the bass line and a more complex line in the treble.

Musical score for measures 9 and 10. The score is written for three staves: a single treble clef staff at the top, and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) below. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#). Measure 9 begins with a repeat sign. Measure 10 contains a fermata over the final note.

Musical score for measures 11 and 12. The score is written for three staves: a single treble clef staff at the top, and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) below. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#). Measure 11 begins with a repeat sign. Measure 12 contains a fermata over the final note.
